Spotlight On Stage

INTERNATIONAL SINGING STAR AELITA TO PERFORM AT BETH TORAH SYNAGOGUE FOR HOLOCAUST SURVIVORS: Only once in a great while do audiences have an opportunity to enjoy such a unique talent as Aelita, internationally known the world over as "The Queen of Cabaret," singing songs from her exciting repertoire, "Songs From the Heart," for the survivors of the Holocaust and their descendants. "Café Europa" is a social event that takes place three to four times a year, for those living in Miami-Dade County. Her many fans fall in love with her warmth, charm and personality making her one of the world's greatest performers who will win the hearts of any audience. Aelita has completed two world tours, singing in 16 different languages and sang at the opening of the World Cup in Seoul, Korea, winning the title of "The Best Big Band Vocalist" in 2002. The preservation of Yiddish music has become a lifelong quest for Aelita, who truly sings from the heart.

Aelita, born and raised in Latvia, now a resident of Hollywood, Florida is a recording artist and has recently released two new recordings, "Cabaret a la Russe," based on her 2009 Broadway appearance at the Laurie Beechman Theatre and "Songs My Father Taught Me," a compilation of Jewish music, combined with "American Pop a la Yiddish," dedicated to the memory of her father. She has helped to raise more than seven million dollars for the State of Israel alone, as well as funds for many other charities. A chanteuse extraordinaire, Aelita is a second generation of Holocaust survivors herself.

On December 21, 2011, this delightful performer will bring her special brand of entertainment to a Luncheon at 11:30 a.m. at the Beth Torah Temple hosted by the Miami-Dade Holocaust Survivors, Inc. Advanced reservations should be sent to the Miami-Dade Holocaust Survivors Inc., 4200 Biscayne Boulevard, Suite 3D, Miami, Florida 33187-3279. Donations to the MDHS Fund for emergency assistance are appreciated. Beth Torah Temple is located at 20350 Northeast 26th Avenue, North Miami Beach.
